

Dennis J. McConaghy

Executive Vice-President,
Pipeline Strategy and Development

As Executive Vice-President, Pipeline Strategy and Development, Dennis McConaghy leads the gas business development activities at TransCanada with a focus on Alaska, Mackenzie and other new pipeline developments, as well as extensions and expansions of our existing systems in Canada and the U.S. Mr. McConaghy is currently responsible for liquefied natural gas and compressed natural gas. He sits on the company's Management and Business Development committees.

Mr. McConaghy joined TransCanada in 1998, and has held senior positions in Corporate Strategy & Development, Midstream/Divestments, and Business Development.

Prior to the TransCanada/NOVA merger, Mr. McConaghy held several senior positions with NOVA Corporation and NOVA Chemicals Ltd.

Mr. McConaghy has more than 25 years' experience in oil and gas, beginning his career as a Research Associate with the Alberta Research Council. He has also worked for the Alberta Gas Trunkline and the Alberta Gas Ethylene Company.

Mr. McConaghy graduated from the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering in 1973 and a Master of Science in Chemical Engineering in 1975.

With more than 50 years' experience, TransCanada is a leader in the responsible development and reliable operation of North American energy infrastructure including natural gas pipelines, power generation, gas storage facilities, and projects related to oil pipelines. TransCanada's network of wholly owned pipelines extends more than 59,000 kilometres (36,500 miles), tapping into virtually all major gas supply basins in North America. TransCanada is one of the continent's largest providers of gas storage and related services with approximately 370 billion cubic feet of storage capacity. A growing independent power producer, TransCanada owns, or has interests in, over 11,800 megawatts of power generation in Canada and the United States. TransCanada's common shares trade on the Toronto and New York stock exchanges under the symbol TRP. For more information visit: www.transcanada.com
